From quiet homes
and first beginnings

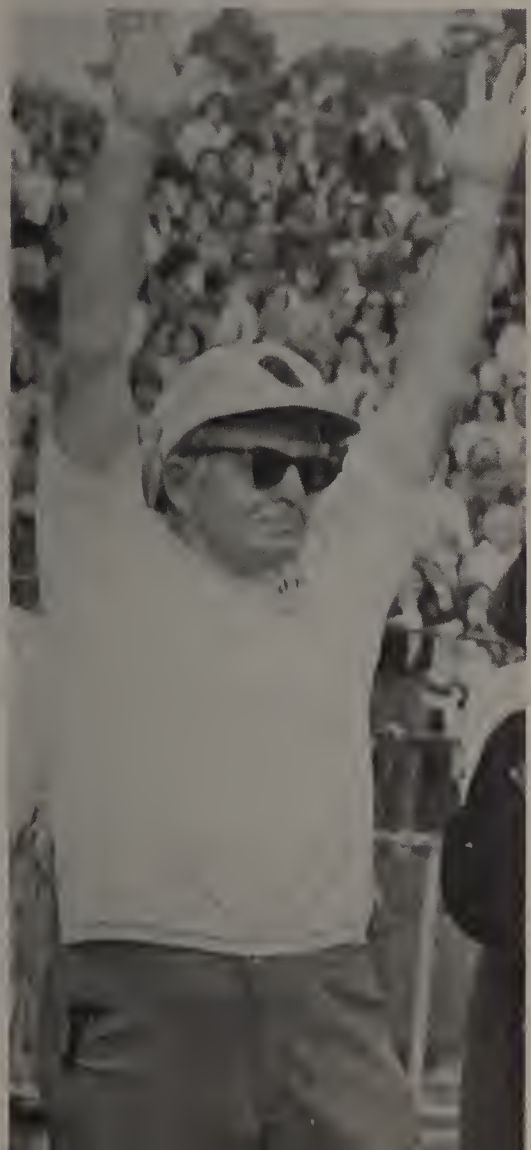

Out to undiscovered
ends,

There's nothing worth
the wear of winning

But laughter and the love of friends

Reflections on the water Live shadows on my mind,

Speak to me of passing days
and nights,
and passing time.

The falling leaves are whispering winter's on its way.

I close my eyes remembering the warmth of yesterday.

These symbols of tradition hold within a spark of knowledge. We move on, kindled by their fire . . .

But they remain.

As each new day swallows
time through years,
We find ourselves longing
for yesterday . . .

Yet searching for tomorrow

DEDICATION

We the Class of 1974 reminising and reflecting on our high school years recall many knowledgable instructors who have molded certain facets of our lives.

One member of the faculty has contributed in many tangible and intangible ways. Not only is he an intelligent competent instructor, but he is also a generous man who has devoted much time to advising his students with dedicated interest.

His warm smile and kind nature have made many long-lasting friendships at Woburn High School and the members of this class want to express to him how honored we, as well as past classed have been to have known him.

We therefore deem it an honor and privledge to dedicate our yearbook. The 1974 Innitou, to you. . . .

Mr. George Giragosian

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

DR. CHARLES LAMONTAGNE
Superintendent

Congratulations to the Class of 1974. Many significant national and international events have happened in your school years, and particularly during these last few.

The future presents many problems about the environment, nations' governments, ecology, personal worth, life style, one's responsibilities, and one's individuality.

You have the abounding resources of youthfulness, vitality, and creativity. These combined, will assist you to meet the future head on and to realize your goals as have others before you. Your tasks may not be as easy as were those of others, thus it will be necessary to exercise to the fullest your talent, learning, and potential. The challenge is real. "Difficulties mastered are the true opportunities," a wise philosopher once remarked.

My sincerest best wishes to each of you.

Charles W. Lamontagne
Superintendent of Schools

To the Class of 1974

It has been written that the great task of the 1970's in education is to humanize the school. The great building programs and structural reorganization that took place during the 1960's should serve now, in this decade as foundation blocks where the approach should be to emphasize students over buildings and to create a place where freedom means order without regimentation, a place where teachers do care, a place with which the student identifies and possesses a sense of belonging.

It has been increasingly a concern and major strength of the Woburn Senior High School to provide a humane school where the student learns not only to work with others and to understand himself better, but also to learn how he can best fit into society.

In the long history of the school since its founding in 1852, emphasis has always been placed on providing for the educational needs of the youth who attend the school; but in 1974 the deep social concern to provide the best psychological atmosphere for each student has assumed overriding importance.

On your eve of graduation in June, 1974, it is our sincere hope that in your association with the Woburn Senior High School, you have found that your future welfare as a human being has been a matter of daily solicitude by the teachers and administrators. May your future be as bright as the hopes we express.

You're about to take a giant step forward into your future. We think we can make it the bright one you want it to be at New England Telephone. With a job that's every bit as big as your ambition. You see, we need people. With all kinds of talents. And especially, people who really want to get going with their future. And want to be rewarded with automatic raises. If you want a job and a future that's tailored to your talent... along with unusually generous fringe benefits, stop in and see your guidance counselor. Ask when and where you can apply for an interview with the people who want to make your future as happy as you want it to be.
